EDUCATION.

The Board of Education has aided 1825 students in 134 schools. Since the beginning in 1873, 8990 students representing 26 nationalities in the United States have been aided.

We rejoice in the fact that we now have a school of our own in Alvin College located at Alvin, Tex., half way between Houston and Galveston on the Sante Fe railroad, in which our people should become interested and their sympathies enlisted; therefore, we pledge ourselves to bring its needs and advantages before our people, and urge their support and hearty cooperation in all things pertaining to the welfare of the school.

We recommend further, that the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) be apportioned to the various charges of this Conference and that an urgent appeal be made to meet this appointment.

We also recommend that the collection taken for public education now in the hands of the Conference Treasurer be turned over as last year to Baldwin Academy.

We respectfully request Bishop Joyce to appoint Chas. K. Woodson as President of Alvin College.

ALVIN COLLEGE.

We, the commission appointed at the last session of the Gulf Mission Conference to act with a similar commission raised by the

Austin Conference looking toward the locating of a school of high grade some where on the gulf coast, respectfully report as follows: whereas,

The Austin Conference commission on last March, 1899, met at Alvin, Tex., and accepted the proposition of the people of Alvin and located Alvin College under certain conditions, which had not been complied with fully up to the session of the Austin Conference, Dec. 14, 1899, and whereas,

The Austin Conference on Dec. 19, 1899, appointed another commission to enquire into the affairs of Alvin College, and this commission met at Alvin, Tex., Jan. 17, 1900, and upon satisfactory security being given, the proposition of the Alvin people was accepted and the school located as a college of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Gulf Mission Conference commission concurring; therefore,

We recommend that this Conference ratify and approve the action of the joint commission and accept Alvin College as a school of the Methodist Episcopal Church under the joint control and patronage of the Austin Conference and Gulf Mission Conference, to do the work of a college under the laws of the state of Texas, made and provided for such institutions and such other provisions as are specified and provided for in the charter and by-laws of Alvin College.

ACTION OF JOINT COMMISSION.

The joint commission of the Austin and Gulf Mission Conferences met at Alvin, Texas, Jan. 17, 1900, and accepted the proposition of the Alvin people, viz:—Two school buildings and furniture, and other property, total valuation $45,000, and located and established Alvin College as a college of the Methodist Episcopal Church under the joint control of the Austin and Gulf Mission Conferences.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.

Five million people in the south can neither read nor write. Since the close of the war our church has expended within our borders twelve million dollars ($12,000,000), and has today 600,429 members here, 341,168 of these being white. In our church schools here are 10,000 students. We would urge that we of the southern conferences should not only be friends to this truly beneficial work among us, but that we should be its enthusiastic supporters. We pray God to hasten the day when Christian schools that recognize God as supreme and the Bible as His inspired word, shall dot our land from north to south and east to west; when our people, educated to a broader citizenship, a closer love and fellowship for one another and a deeper love and consecration to Almighty God, shall take their place in the van of Christian civilization and bring the world to Christ.

JULIAN WOODSON.

PERIODICALS.

Every Methodist Preacher ought to be a distributor of good literature. He cannot otherwise be faithful to his people or the publishing interests of the church. We especially regret that within our bounds, religious papers, cheap and weak, hold the place rightly belonging to our own literature, better in most respects than any published by private enterprise and for individual profit. We earnestly hope that all our Pastors and members of official boards will take the Central Christian Advocate or some other of our own official papers. We commend the healthy religious tone and the newsy columns of the Epworth Herald to all our young people. Let us cultivate intelligent piety by a full use of the gigantic agencies of our publishing house and bring ourselves to a full appreciation of these aids so easily within our reach.

C. W. CAMPBELL,

F. D. VAN VALKENBURGH.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

1.—We recognize in the Sunday school one of the most important factors in the religious and educational life not only of our age, but of ages to come, since the Sunday school teaches the Bible and brings the gospel to vast multitudes in the respective periods of childhood.

For several good reasons we recommend the use of the literature supplied by the Methodist Episcopal Church. Great care should be exercised in the selection of teachers. We hope the time is not far distant when every teacher in our Sunday schools shall be a professed follower of Jesus Christ, with a living experience.

2.—The Tract society of the Methodist Episcopal Church aids in the circulation of religious literature, particularly in the form of tracts and leaflets throughout the entire world. It is circulating literature in at least twelve languages in the United States alone, and in more than twenty languages in foreign lands. We recommend that our Pastors send to the Book Concern for the catalogue of tracts, which will be sent free to all who apply.

One half the amount given for the support of the tract society will be returned in tracts, upon application, to the congregation that gives, and they may receive more in case of emergency. The above benevolent enterprise we recommend to the prayers and support of Pastors and congregations.

JOHN H. PAUL,
P. J. ROBIDOUX.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The first day that man lived was the Sabbath; hence it is much older than Mosaic ceremonies. Sabbath observance, like the rest of the moral law, was grafted into the law of love. We are not to be in bondage to the law, because the son of man is Lord of the Sabbath. We are to keep the day according to the New Testament standard, and in such a spirit that we will enjoy keeping it.

We deplore the fact that railroad companies and other great corporations in our Christian land have so arranged their business that thousands of laborers are almost forced to violate God's law, a multitude of travelers are tempted by the excursion trains, etc., to desecrate that sacred day, while others are led to disobey God by patronizing the different forms of Sunday traffic.

While we agree that works of mercy and necessity may be performed on the Sabbath day, we resolve as a Conference of ministers, to hold up the true standard of Sabbath observance by precept and example, and we invite all lovers of peace and liberty to do the same.

JOHN H. PAUL,
JEAN LA GRONE.

TEMPERANCE.

Our proper course towards all forms of all alcohol is "Touch not, taste not, handle not, the unclean thing." The arch fiend of hell put in operation the American saloon. It stands a resort for ruffians, a breeder of crime, an open door to hell. Our church stands as ever in the past, the determined antagonist of this evil.

We advise our people to heed the good advice of Bishop McCabe and join in the effort to secure a million signatures to an agreement to vote in solid phalynx for its utter overthrow; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the Gulf Mission Conference, unite in petitioning bishops, ministers, editors, anti-saloon superintendents, young people's societies and temperance people every where, to join hands with the Million Voter's League of the Young People's Christian Temperance Union for the overthrow of the saloon in our nation.

F. D. VANVALKENBURGH.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

We rejoice to know that Chapters are in active operation in the following charges, viz: Jennings, Crowley, Lake Charles, Raymond and Ebenezer. We urge upon all our Pastors the importance of having an Epworth League in each charge and as nearly as possible one at every preaching place. We would recommend that proper organization of the districts be effected early in the year and conventions held.

L. W. ELKINS,
C. W. CAMPBELL.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Believing as we do that it is the purpose of God to use the church as the great uplifting, evangelizing and saving agency in the world, we see the pressing demand for renewed consecration and industry. We believe that portion of the church which we serve has a personal call to seek out and save the souls and bodies of men in this section of our great country. It is with deep regret that we confess that we are not doing what we ought to do, and what we must do if we measure up to our responsibilities. As a Conference we should move hand in hand in our great work, and in every way seek to return to the old time zeal and power of our fathers, and preserve the old time power and efficiency of our doctrine and experience. May it please the great head of the church to seal us anew to his service, and make our church and Conference and people a great blessing to this country.

J. W. LIVELY,
C. A. KING.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The collections for this cause up to Nov. 1 aggregated $501. To this our Conference adds $144, making a total of $645. Eleven churches within our bounds have received aid by donations, amounting to $2250 and loans of $1575. We are asked this year for $200 collections and $1000 are apportioned to us. This means that for every dollar raised by collections, five are granted for our use.

Surely every Pastor will have the hearty cooperation of every member in his earnest endeavor to meet such an offer as this with a full collection.

MEMOIR OF REV. I. N. PARDEE.

Rev. Ira Nichols Pardee, D. D., was born in Kingston, N. Y., July 29, 1840, and died in Jennings, La., March 9, 1899. He was converted when but eleven years of age, and joined the M. E. Church. At nineteen years of age he entered the ministry in the Wyoming conference. The same year he was married to Miss Mary Winchell, of Housatonicville, Mass. After about twelve years service in the Wyoming conference he moved west and served the following charges: First M. E. Church, Omaha, Neb., First Church, Ft. Dodge, Iowa, Superintendent of Dakota Mission, Presiding Elder of Mitchell District, Dakota, Financial Agent of Dakota University, Pastor First M. E. Church, Sioux City, Iowa, Chancellor of the University of the Northwest, (and other positions not known to the writer.) In July, 1895, he became Pastor of the M. E. Church in Jennings, La., which position he held till Feb. 1898, when he was appointed Temperance Agent for the Gulf Mission Conference, and was reappointed to this position in 1899.

Some weeks before the Conference of 1899, he had an attack of La Grippe, and was so feeble during the Conference that he could only attend long enough to make his report. Soon after Conference a complication of diseases set in and soon it was apparent that his work was done. On the 9th of March, precisely at 12 noon, the weary wheels of life stood still, and his immortal spirit winged its flight to become a peer of the first born sons of light. His last days were days of peace. Rationality blessed him down to the last hour, then he fell asleep in Jesus, as sweetly as a babe falls asleep in the arms of its mother.

L. W. ELKINS.

MEMOIR OF REV. P. H. SANDERS.

Rev. Patrik Henry Sanders was born in Bossier parish, La., June 22, 1850. He was converted in May, 1883. Licensed to preach in 1888. In Feb. 1898, he was admitted on trial in the Gulf Mission Conference, and appointed to Atlanta charge, where he was a faithful Pastor. At the last session of Conference he was appointed to Rodessa Mission which he served with great zeal and faithfulness until he was prostrated by sickness in August. He lingered until the 21st of September, when death relieved his sufferings and removed him from the church below to the church triumphant. His death was that of a true soldier of the cross. In his death he witnessed to the great salvation he preached and lived among men. We had no truer among us than he. He was a man of remarkable courage and fearlessness. He had deep convictions and lived up to them. He knew no compromise with sin. Our Conference has lost a noble man, a fearless soldier, a true Christian, and a faithful Minister.

He leaves a wife, three children and a multitude of friends to mourn their loss. May we embalm his memory with us and preserve a tender love for so good, so true and faithful a man. May we reverence his name and emulate his virtues. Peace be to his ashes.
